REGISTRATION.

Registers.

Prescribed registers.

- (2) In addition to such registers as he may be required by any other law to keep, each registrar shall as soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, prepare, open and keep the prescribed registers.
- (3) Any prescribed register in which any debts secured by bonds are entered shall be deemed to be a continuation of the debt registers kept in any registry prior to the commencement of this Act and any entries made therein shall have the same effect in law as they would have had if they had been made in the said debt registers.

Temporary continuation of existing registers.

12. Until such time as any prescribed register has been prepared and opened each registrar shall continue to keep the corresponding register in use in his registry immediately prior to the commencement of this Act, and to make therein the like entries as were customarily made therein prior to such commencement.

General Provisions.

When registration takes place.

13. (1) Deeds executed or attested by a registrar shall be deemed to be registered upon the affixing of the registrar's signature thereto: Provided that no such deed, which is one of a batch of interdependent deeds, intended for registration together, shall be deemed to be registered until all the deeds of the batch have been signed by the registrar.

(2) If by inadvertence the registrar's signature has not been affixed to a deed at the time at which the signature should have been affixed in the ordinary course, the registrar may affix his signature thereto when the omission is discovered, and the deed shall thereupon be deemed to have been registered at the time aforesaid.

(3) All endorsements or entries made on title deeds or in registers in connection with the registration of any deed executed or attested by a registrar shall be deemed to have been effected simultaneously with the registration of such deed, although in fact they may have been made subsequent thereto.

Deeds to follow sequence of their relative causes.

14. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act or in any other law or as directed by the court—

(a) transfers of land and cessions of real rights therein shall follow the sequence of the successive transactions in pursuance of which they are made, and if made in pursuance of testamentary disposition or intestate succession they shall follow the sequence in which the right to ownership or other real right in the land accrued to the persons successively becoming vested with such right;

(b) it shall not be lawful to depart from any such sequence in recording in any deeds registry any change in the ownership in such land or of such real right: Provided that—

(i) if the property has passed in terms of a will or through intestate succession from a deceased person to his descendants, and one or other of these descendants has died a minor and intestate and no executor has been appointed in his estate, transfer or cession of the property which has vested in that descendant may be passed by the executor in the estate of the deceased person direct to the heirs ab intestato of the descendant;

(ii) if the registrar is satisfied that the value of the immovable property which has vested in any heir or legatee in terms of a will or through intestate succession would be equalled or exceeded by the costs involved in transferring or ceding it to the heir or legatee, and the heir or legatee has sold the property, transfer or cession thereof may, with the consent in writing of the heir or legatee, be passed by the executor in the estate of the deceased person direct to the purchaser;

(iii) if in the administration of the estate of a deceased person any redistribution of the immovable property in such estate takes place among the heirs of the deceased or between such heirs and the surviving spouse, the executor or administrator of such estate may transfer or cede the property direct to the persons entitled thereto in terms of such redistribution.

(2) In any transfer or cession in terms of any proviso to paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) there shall be paid the transfer duty and death duties which would have been payable had the property concerned been transferred or ceded to each person successively becoming entitled thereto.

Preparation of deeds by conveyancer.

If the woman is married the full name of her husband shall also be disclosed, and if the marriage is governed by the law in force in the Union or any part thereof it shall be stated whether the marriage was contracted with or without community of property. If the marriage is governed by the law of any other country it shall be stated that the marriage is governed by the law of that country.

(2) A woman married out of community of property shall be assisted by her husband in executing any deed or other document required or permitted to be registered in any deeds registry or required or permitted to be produced in connection with any such deed or document, unless the marital power has been excluded or unless the assistance of the husband is on other grounds deemed by the registrar to be unnecessary.

(3) Immovable property shall not be transferred or ceded to a woman married in community of property, save where such property is by law or by a condition of a bequest or donation thereof, excluded from the community and the marital power.

(4) If immovable property not excluded from the community has at the commencement of this Act been registered in the name of a woman married in community of property which still subsists, her husband to whom she is so married may, unless she has been authorized by an order of court to deal therewith, alone deal with such property.

(5) If immovable property has been acquired by one or other of two spouses married in community of property in such a manner that the said property would on transfer or cession thereof become part of the joint estate, and the community has been dissolved by the death of one of the spouses before the property is transferred or ceded, the property shall be transferred or ceded to the joint estate of the spouses, pending liquidation thereof, and shall subject to the provisions of any disposition affecting the property, be deemed to be the joint property of the surviving spouse and of the estate of the deceased spouse.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of sections twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two and twenty-three shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of deeds of partition transfer.

(5) Any deed of partition transfer attested under sub-section (1) shall in respect of the land therein described take the place of the deed or deeds by which it was previously held, but the partition transfer shall not vary or affect the conditions of tenure of the said land or any other conditions affecting the said land generally, save in so far as such last-mentioned conditions may be varied, defined or limited by the agreement of partition or the consents of interested parties.

(6) The provisions of this section shall mutatis mutandis apply to a partition of land ordered by the court or determined by an award of arbitrators.

Requisites where share in land partitioned is mortgaged.

27. (1) If the share or shares owned by any of the parties to a partition is mortgaged, the partition transfers shall not be attested unless the bond is produced to the registrar together with the written consent of the legal holder of the bond, to the

(2) In registering the transfer the registrar shall—

- (a) endorse on the bond that the land awarded to the mortgagor has been substituted for the share or shares mortgaged ;
- (b) make an entry of the substitution in the registers ; and
- (c) endorse on the transfer that the land described therein is, in accordance with this section, mortgaged by the bond.

(3) If only a fraction of the share or shares owned by any of the parties to a partition is mortgaged, the substitution referred to in this section shall only take place in respect of the fraction so mortgaged, if from the agreement of partition or from other evidence it appears that a defined portion or share therein has been separately awarded in respect of such mortgaged fraction.

Requisites where share in land partitioned is subject to other rights.

28. (1) If the share or shares owned by any of the parties to a partition appear from the title deeds of the land partitioned to be subject to a lease, personal servitude or other real right, the written consent of the holder thereof, together with the deed, if any, by which the lease, servitude or real right is held, shall be produced to the registrar.

(2) The land described in the deeds of partition transfer shall be made subject to the lease, servitude or real right to the same extent as the share or shares for which it is substituted, and the deed, if any, by which the lease, servitude or real right is held, shall be endorsed by the registrar in the same manner as the bond mentioned in section twenty-seven.

(3) If there exists any bond by which the lease, servitude or real right is itself mortgaged, that bond shall also be produced to the registrar, together with the written consent of the legal holder thereof, and the registrar shall make the endorsements and entries mentioned in section twenty-seven on the bond, the deeds concerned and in the registers.

Upon completion of the endorsements and entries mentioned in sections twenty-seven and twenty-eight the land described in the deeds of partition transfer, and the lease, personal servitude or real right (if any) shall be deemed to be as fully and effectually mortgaged as if they had been hypothecated by the bond at the time of its execution and the said land shall be deemed to be as fully and effectually encumbered by the said lease, personal servitude or real right as if it had been encumbered thereby at the time of the registration thereof.

Partition of land subject to fidei commissum.

30. (1) Any piece of land the whole or any share of which is subject to a fidei commissum may, where partition has not been prohibited, be partitioned with the written consent of the fidei commissary heirs or successors if they are ascertained and are majors and otherwise competent ; if they are ascertained but any of them are minors, the consent of the Master shall be produced in respect of the minors ; if they are ascertained but any of them have been declared insolvent, or if they are under curatorship or otherwise under disability the consent of their trustees or curators or other legal representatives shall be produced on their behalf ; if they are not ascertained or if they cannot be found, proof shall be produced to the satisfaction of the registrar that the land awarded in the agreement of partition to the owner of any share subject to the fidei commissum is an equivalent of that share.

(2) The land so awarded shall in the deed of partition transfer be made subject to the fidei commissum in the same manner as the corresponding share was in its title deed made subject thereto before partition.

Transfer of expropriated land or land vested by statute.

31. (1) Whenever any land has, under the authority of any law, been expropriated by, and whenever the ownership of any land has by statute been vested in, the State, any public or local authority or any corporate body or any association of persons, the registrar shall, upon lodgment with him of a deed of transfer in the prescribed form prepared by a conveyancer in favour of the transferee, execute the same, and if the land is hypothecated, he shall note the fact of such transfer against the entry of the bond in the register in which such entry has been made : Provided that no such transfer shall prejudice any claim to compensation which any owner or other person may have in respect of the change of ownership of such land.

(2) The transferee shall produce the title deeds of such land to the registrar together with the aforesaid deed of transfer, and the registrar shall thereupon note the transfer on such title deeds. Failing the production of such title deeds, the transferee shall produce to the registrar an order of court referred to in sub-section (3).

(3) The owner of such land shall, upon demand, hand over his title deeds to the transferee and if he fails to do so, the transferee may apply to court for an order directing the owner to do so, and authorizing the registrar to execute the aforesaid deed of transfer without the production of the said title deeds, if the owner should fail to comply with such order.

(4) The registrar shall not execute the said deed of transfer unless he is satisfied that any notice prescribed by or under any law in connection with the change of ownership of such land has been duly served upon the person entitled to such notice, and may call for such diagrams as he may think necessary.

(5) No deed purporting to transfer such land or to create or deal with any real right therein shall be registered in a deeds registry until transfer thereof has been passed in accordance with sub-section (1).

Registration of expropriated servitudes or servitudes vested by statute.

32. (1) Whenever any right of servitude over any land has under the authority of any law been expropriated by, or has by statute been vested in the State, any public or local authority or any corporate body or any association of persons, the owner of the land shall on demand of the holder of such right sign or authorize the signature of a notarial deed evidencing such servitude and hand over to such holder the title deeds of the land.

(2) If the owner of the land fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1), the holder of the right of servitude may apply to the court for an order directing the owner to sign or authorize the signature of the notarial deed and to hand over the title deeds, and authorizing some person on failure of the owner to comply with such order, to appear before a notary public and execute the said deed in the place of the owner, and authorizing the registrar to register the said deed without the production of the title deeds.

(3) On production of the prescribed number of copies of the said deed duly executed and of the title deeds or of the order of court authorizing registration of such deed without production of the title deeds, the registrar shall register the deed, and if the land is hypothecated, shall note the fact of such registration against the entry of the bond in the register in which such entry has been made: Provided that no such registration shall prejudice any claim to compensation which any owner or other person may have in respect of the expropriation or vesting of such servitude.

(4) The registrar shall not register the said deed unless he is satisfied that any notice prescribed by or under any law in connection with the expropriation of such servitude, has been duly served upon the person entitled to such notice, and may call for such diagrams as he may think necessary.

- (7) (a) Upon the expiration of the period mentioned in sub-section (6) the commission concerned shall enquire into the application and the objections, if any, lodged thereto, and shall, if satisfied that the applicant is entitled to the ownership of the property to which the application relates, order the registrar of deeds to register the said property in the name of the applicant subject to the conditions, if any, mentioned in the order.
- (b) The commission may make such order as to the costs of or in connection with the application or the objections thereto as it may deem just and such costs may be taxed and any such order enforced in the same manner as if the order were an order of court.

- (10) A registration of immovable property made in the name of any person in pursuance of an order made under this section shall have the effect of vesting such person with a title to such property which shall be liable to be annulled, limited or altered on every ground on which the title of such person to such property would have been liable to be annulled, limited or altered if such property had been transferred to such person in the ordinary course.

(11) If in pursuance of any order made under this section the registrar of deeds registers any property in the name of any person, such person shall be liable to pay such taxes, duties and fees of office in respect of such registration as he would have been liable to pay if such property had been transferred to him in the usual manner directly from the last registered owner thereof, and shall not be liable to pay any tax, duty, quitrent or interest thereon which such owner or any intermediate holder of the right to such property may have become liable to pay, unless he shall by agreement have bound himself to pay such tax, duty, quitrent or interest, or unless the delay in obtaining the registration in his name was due to the neglect or default of himself or his agent: Provided that any person who has become liable to pay any such tax, duty, quitrent or interest shall continue to be so liable notwithstanding that such property has, in pursuance of an order made under this section, been registered in the name of another person.

(12) Upon production to the registrar of deeds of any order made under this section and of a certificate by the proper officer as to the payment of the transfer duty, if any, which the person named in the order is liable to pay; and on compliance with any other requirements which have under this Act or any regulation made thereunder, to be complied with, the registrar shall register such property in accordance with the said order, by executing a deed of transfer thereof in the prescribed form in favour of the person named in the order.

(2) A bond may be registered to secure an existing debt or a future debt or both existing and future debts.

(3) Bonds intended to secure loans for building purposes shall be deemed to be bonds to secure existing debts.

(4) If in a bond purporting to secure a future debt the amount of an existing debt is mentioned, such existing debt shall be deemed to be secured as part of the maximum amount intended to be secured by the bond.

(5) Save as authorized by any other law or by order of the Court, debts or obligations to more than one creditor arising from different causes may not be secured by one bond.

Requirements in case of bonds intended to secure future debts.

51. (1) Except where passed, in Natal or the Orange Free State, on the authority of a power of attorney granted prior to the commencement of the Deeds Registries Act, 1918, or in the Transvaal on the authority of a power of attorney granted prior to the commencement of the Registration of Deeds and Titles Act, 1909 (Act No. 25 of 1909) of the Transvaal, which power of attorney has in either case been duly registered in terms of sub-section (2) of section fifty of the first-mentioned Act, no bond attested or registered after the commencement of this Act shall be of any force or effect for the purpose of giving preference or priority in respect of any debt incurred after the registration of the bond, unless—

(a) it is expressly stipulated in the bond that the bond is intended to secure future debts generally or some particular future debt described therein; and

(b) a sum is fixed in the bond as an amount beyond which future debts shall not be secured by the bond.

(2) If a bond purports to secure payment by the mortgagor of the costs of preserving and realising the security or of fire insurance premiums, cost of notice or bank exchange, such costs and charges shall not be deemed to be future debts within the meaning of sub-section (1).

Cession of bond securing future debts.

52. No cession of any bond intended to secure future debts shall be registered unless the amount already due in respect thereof is disclosed in the cession. On registration of such cession the bond shall be deemed to be a bond securing an existing debt of the amount so disclosed and shall be endorsed accordingly.

Exclusion of general clause in mortgage bonds.

53. (1) Save as provided in any other law the registrar shall not attest any mortgage bond which purports to bind movable property or which contains the clause, commonly known as the general clause, purporting to bind generally all the immovable or movable property of the debtor or both and shall not register any notarial bond which purports to bind immovable property.

(2) No mortgage bond shall be passed by two or more mortgagors unless it purports to bind immovable property of each mortgagor.

Requirements in case of bonds passed by or in favour of two or more persons. 55. (1) If a bond is passed by two or more mortgagors no release of one mortgagor or of his property from the bond may be registered without the written consent of the other mortgagor or mortgagors.

(2) No bond may be passed in favour of two or more persons in which it is stipulated that the share of one holder shall rank prior in order of preference to the share of another, nor may any transaction be registered which would have the effect of giving preference to one share in a bond over another share.

Rights of Mortgagees.

Transfer of hypothecated immovable property.

56. (1) No transfer of mortgaged land shall be attested or executed by the registrar, and no cession of a mortgaged lease of immovable property, or of any mortgaged real right in land, shall be registered until the bond has been cancelled or the land, lease, or right has been released from the operation of the bond with the consent in writing of the holder thereof: Provided that no such cancellation or release shall be necessary if the transfer or cession is made—

- (a) in execution of the judgment of any court by the competent officer; or
- (b) by the trustee of an insolvent estate, an executor administering and distributing an estate under sub-section (3) of section forty-eight of the Administration of Estates Act, 1913, the liquidator of a company which is unable to pay its debts and which is being wound up by or under the supervision of the court or a liquidator or trustee elected or appointed under the Farmers' Assistance Act, 1935; or

(2) A consent to the release from the operation of a bond of all the property mortgaged thereunder shall, except where the debt secured by such bond is further secured by a collateral bond, be deemed to be a consent to the cancellation of that bond.

Substitution of debtor in respect of a bond.

57. (1) If the owner (in this section referred to as the transferor) of land which is hypothecated under a registered mortgage bond (not being a person referred to in paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section fifty-six) has agreed to transfer to another person the whole of the land hypothecated thereunder, and has not reserved any real right in such land, the registrar may, notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1) of the said section, register the transfer and substitute the transferee for the transferor as debtor in respect of the bond: Provided that there is produced to him, in duplicate, the written consent in the prescribed form of the holder of the bond and the transferee to the substitution of the transferee for the transferor as the debtor in respect of the bond.

(2) In registering the transfer the registrar shall—

- (a) make, in the appropriate register in the prescribed form—
 - (i) an entry setting forth that the debt of the transferor secured by the bond is cancelled; and
 - (ii) an entry setting forth that the transferee has become the debtor in respect of the bond;
- (b) annex one duplicate of the written consent referred to in sub-section (1) to the bond and file the other with the registry duplicate thereof;
- (c) endorse upon the bond in the prescribed form—
 - (i) the name of the transferee;
 - (ii) the date and number of the transfer;
 - (iii) a reference to the said written consent; and
 - (iv) that the transferee has been substituted for the transferor as debtor in respect of the bond; and
- (d) make on the transfer deed an endorsement of mortgage containing the date and number of the bond and the amount due in terms thereof.

(3) As from the date of the transfer deed the transferor shall be absolved from any obligation secured by the bond and the transferee shall be substituted for him as the debtor in respect of such bond and shall be bound by the terms thereof in the same manner as if he had himself passed the bond and had renounced therein the benefit of all relevant exceptions.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the mortgaged land is to be transferred—

- (a) to a person who would not himself be competent to mortgage it; or
- (b) to two or more persons, unless they take transfer of the land in undivided shares and renounce, in the written consent referred to in sub-section (1) the exception de duobus vel pluribus reis debendi; or
- (c) to a married woman, unless she renounces, in the said written consent, any special legal exceptions which she would otherwise be entitled to raise.

Returns by master in connection with insolvent estates and further provisions relative to insolvent estates.

58. (1) If it appears from the liquidation account of any estate which has been sequestrated or from the vouchers relating thereto that a payment has been made to any creditor on account of a registered bond, the Master shall notify the payment to the registrar who shall thereupon write off the amount thereof in the appropriate register, on the registry duplicate of the bond and also if possible on the original bond. The holder of the bond shall deliver the bond to the Master, who shall forward it to the registrar in order that the amount paid may be written off thereon.

(2) Except in cases where an insolvent has been rehabilitated in pursuance of a composition made by him with his creditors, the Master shall from time to time transmit to the registrar a return specifying—

- (a) the name and address of every person who has been rehabilitated after the sequestration of his estate; and
- (b) the immovable property and registered bonds appearing in the schedules lodged with the Master by or on behalf of such person or in the liquidation account of his estate; and upon receipt of that return the registrar shall, in accordance therewith, cancel in the appropriate registers all bonds registered therein against the property of the said person prior to the sequestration of his estate and endorse the registry duplicates and, if possible, also the bonds themselves as cancelled. The holders of such bonds shall when requested to do so by the Master, deliver the bonds to him, and the Master shall forward them to the registrar for cancellation.

(3) If any of the immovable property mentioned in the return has not yet been transferred by the trustee, the registrar shall further note on the registry duplicate of the title deed of such property and in the appropriate registers that such property has in terms of the law relating to insolvency vested in the trustee.

(4) Immovable property which has vested in a trustee in accordance with the provisions of the law relating to insolvency and which has not in terms of that law been re-vested in the insolvent may, whether before or after rehabilitation of the insolvent, be transferred only by the trustee, and may not after such rehabilitation be transferred, mortgaged or otherwise dealt with by the insolvent until it has been transferred to him by the trustee: Provided that if after rehabilitation, the trustee has been discharged or there is no trustee in existence, the Master shall, if satisfied that the rehabilitated insolvent is entitled to the property, give him transfer thereof in such manner as may be prescribed.

(5) If by virtue of the provisions of the law relating to insolvency an insolvent has been re-invested with the ownership of any property, such property may not be transferred, mortgaged or otherwise dealt with by the insolvent until an endorsement, in the manner prescribed, that the property has been restored to him, has been made by the registrar on the title deed of the property.

(6) Nothing in this section contained shall be construed as modifying any provision of the law relating to insolvency.

(7) The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of—

- (a) estates administered and distributed under section forty-eight of the Administration of Estates Act, 1913;

- (b) companies which are unable to pay their debts and are liquidated or wound up by or under the supervision of the court under the law relating to companies ; and
- (c) assets of an applicant under the Farmers' Assistance Act, 1935, which are administered by a liquidator or trustee who has received from the Master a certificate mentioned in section seventeen of the said Act.

Endorsement of bond after sale in execution.

59. Whenever any mortgaged immovable property has been sold in execution of a judgment of a competent court or under express authority contained in a special law, to satisfy any debt due in respect of a registered bond or otherwise, and the proceeds of the sale have been paid to the legal holder of the bond, the sheriff or deputy sheriff or messenger concerned or the person acting under the authority of such special law shall notify to the registrar how much of the capital sum due in terms of the bond has been paid, and shall transmit the bond to the registrar. The registrar shall thereupon write off the amount so paid in the appropriate registers and on the bond and registry duplicate thereof.

Consent of bondholder to registration of merger of rights of mortgagor.

60. If the holder of a mortgaged lease of land or of mortgaged real rights in land acquires the ownership of that land, or if the holder of a mortgaged lease of real rights in land acquires those rights, or if the owner of mortgaged land which is entitled to rights of servitude over other land, acquires the ownership of that other land, such acquisition of the additional land or rights shall not be registered without the consent in writing of the holder of the bond.

Notarial Bonds.

Registration of notarial bonds.

61. (1) Every notarial bond executed before or after the commencement of this Act shall be tendered for registration in a deeds registry within the period of two months after the date of its execution or within such extended period as the court may on application allow. Unless so tendered, or if so tendered and rejected by the registrar and not re-tendered within the said period, a notarial bond shall not be registered except upon an order of court and within such further period as the court may direct : Provided that if the registrar suspends or refuses registration pending the submission of further information in order to enable him to determine whether any person mentioned in the bond is or is not a person whose name appears in any register or document in the deeds registry concerned, such suspension or refusal shall not be deemed to be a rejection of the bond.

(2) A signed original for filing in the registry as the registry duplicate, together with a further original or a grosse or a copy of the bond certified by a notary public shall be tendered for registration.

(3) Every notarial bond shall disclose—

- (a) the place at and the date on which it was executed, as well as the place where the notary practises ; and
- (b) the place where the debtor resides and the place or places, if any, where he carries on business.

(4) A notarial bond shall be deemed to be registered at the time when the entry thereof is made in the appropriate register.

Where notarial bond is to be registered.

62. (1) Every notarial bond shall be registered in the deeds registry for the area in which the debtor resides and carries on business, or if he resides and carries on business in areas served by different deeds registries, in the deeds registry for the area in which he resides and in every deeds registry serving any area in which he carries on business.

(2) No notarial bond shall be of any force or effect as against any person who is not a party thereto, unless it has been registered in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1).

(3) Registration of a notarial bond in accordance with the provisions of the said sub-section shall be effective as registration for the whole Union.

(4) A notarial bond which is required to be registered in more than one deeds registry shall be registered in the first registry within the period prescribed in section sixty-one, in the second registry within an additional period of one month after the date of registration in the first registry, and in each successive further registry within a further period of one month after the date on which it was last registered in any registry.

(5) The provisions of sub-section (2) of section sixty-one shall apply in respect of the registration in the first registry. For the purpose of registration in the other registries it shall be sufficient if the original bond registered in the first registry is produced together with a further duplicate or grosse or a copy thereof certified by a notary public for filing in the registry concerned.

Certificates of registered real rights.

64. (1) Any person who either before or after the commencement of this Act has transferred land subject to the reservation of any real right in his favour (other than a right to minerals) may on application in writing to the registrar accompanied by the title deed of the land obtain a certificate of registration of that real right as nearly as practicable in the prescribed form.

(2) Such person shall not separately mortgage or otherwise deal with such right or transfer a share thereof (if transferable) unless he has obtained such certificate in the manner aforesaid.

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (2) to (4) inclusive of section thirty-seven shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of such certificate.

Personal Servitudes.

Registration of notarial deed creating personal servitude.

65. (2) Such deed shall contain a sufficient description of the land encumbered by the servitude and shall mention the title deed of such land.

(3) For the registration of such a deed a signed original of the deed to be filed as the registry duplicate, together with such further originals or grosses or copies certified by a notary public as may be prescribed shall be produced, accompanied by the title deed of the land, and, if the land is mortgaged, by the bond and the consent in writing of the legal holder thereof, to the registration of the servitude free of the bond.

Restriction on registration of personal servitudes.

66. No personal servitude of usufruct, usus or habitatio purporting to extend beyond the lifetime of the person in whose favour it is created shall be registered, nor may a transfer or cession of such personal servitude to any person other than the owner of the land encumbered thereby, be registered.

Reservation of personal servitudes.

67. A personal servitude may be reserved by condition in a deed of transfer of land, if the reservation is in favour of the transferor, or in favour of the transferor and his spouse or the survivor of them, if they are married in community of property, or in favour of the surviving spouse if transfer is passed from the joint estate of spouses who were married in community of property.

Registration of lapse of personal

(2) Cancellation of the registration of a personal servitude in pursuance of an agreement between the owner of the land encumbered and the holder of the servitude shall be effected by notarial deed: Provided that no such deed shall be registered if the servitude is mortgaged, unless the mortgagee consents in writing to the cancellation of the bond or the release of the servitude from its operation.

(2) Such separation from the ownership may take place in respect of a portion of a registered piece of land, or of a share in the whole or a portion of a registered piece of land, and may be in respect of all minerals generally, or of a particular mineral or minerals.

71. (1) Any person who transfers land subject to a reservation in his favour of rights to minerals thereon, or on whose land a township or settlement is established subject to such reservation, shall simultaneously with the passing of transfer or the opening of a register in a deeds registry for such township or settlement, as the case may be, take out a certificate of rights to minerals in the prescribed form in respect of the rights so reserved; where the register has been opened, a certificate may be taken out in respect of the remainder of the township or settlement upon a certificate from the surveyor-general as to the remainder.

(5) If the rights to minerals are subject to a registered mortgage bond, lease or other deed affecting such rights, the said certificate shall not be issued except upon production of the bond, lease or other deed, and the registrar shall, when issuing the certificate, endorse—

(a) upon the bond, lease or other deed that a certificate of rights to minerals has been substituted for the title under which such rights were formerly held; and

(b) upon the certificate of rights to minerals that these rights have been hypothecated, leased or otherwise dealt with in accordance with such bond, lease or other deed, and shall make the necessary entries in the registers; and thereupon the said rights to minerals shall be deemed to be as fully and effectually hypothecated, leased or otherwise dealt with as if they were still held under the former title.

(6) No rights to minerals reserved before the commencement of this Act and still held under the title deed of the land shall, until a certificate of rights to minerals has been issued in respect thereof, be hypothecated, leased or dealt with otherwise than by way of cession of all such rights.

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section sixty-five shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of praedial servitudes.

Conditions of registration of praedial servitudes.

76. (1) A praedial servitude may be created in a transfer of land only if the servitude is imposed on the land transferred in favour of other land registered in the name of the transferor, or is imposed in favour of the land transferred on other land registered in the name of the transferor: Provided that if—

(2) If the servitude is imposed on other land in favour of the land to be transferred, and that other land is mortgaged or is subject to any other registered real right with which the servitude may conflict, the consent in writing of the legal holder of the bond or of such other right, to the registration of the servitude shall be produced, together with the bond or other deed evidencing such other right and the title deed of the servient tenement.

(3) In registering the deed of transfer in which the servitude is embodied the registrar shall endorse the terms of the servitude and the number and date of the transfer on the title deed of the other tenement and if a bond or other deed is produced, as aforesaid, also thereon.

(2) If the land or right leased or sub-leased is mortgaged or subject to rights of any other person it shall not be necessary for purposes of registration of the lease or sub-lease or any cession thereof to produce the bond or the other deed whereby such rights are held or the consent of the legal holder thereof.

Termination of registered lease.

78. (1) When a registered lease or sub-lease has terminated the registrar shall on written application by the owner of the land affected thereby, or the holder of the lease, as the case may be, accompanied by proof of the termination of the lease or sub-lease and, in the case of the termination of the lease, by the title deed of the land and if available the deed of lease, or in the case of the termination of the sub-lease, by the deed of lease and if available the deed of sub-lease, note in the case of the termination of the lease, on the title deed of the land and on the deed of lease, if produced, or in the case of the termination of the sub-lease, upon the deed of lease and upon the deed of sub-lease, if produced, that the lease or sub-lease as the case may be, has terminated.

(4) A signed original contract (or an equivalent thereof according to the law of the country where it was executed) bearing the attestation of the notary public or otherwise duly authenticated as required by law, for filing of record as the registry duplicate, and a further signed original, similarly attested or authenticated, or a grosse or a copy of the original contract certified by a notary public, shall be tendered for registration.

(5) Registration of an antenuptial contract in any one deeds registry in the manner prescribed in this section shall be effective as registration for the whole Union: Provided that if any transaction in connection with which evidence of such contract is necessary takes place in a deeds registry other than that in which such contract has been registered, a copy of such contract certified by the registrar of the place of registration or a notary public shall be filed in such first-mentioned deeds registry.

88. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections eighty-six and eighty-seven the court may, subject to such conditions as it may deem desirable, authorize postnuptial execution of a notarial contract having the effect of an antenuptial contract, if the terms thereof were agreed upon between the intended spouses before the marriage, and may order the registration, within a specified period, of any contract so executed.
